

me at once, if you had said anything about business - I said: no, that was Jim talking -

I can't argue about it - I am sure you know that I do not wish to hurt you in any way, but various members of my family agree with me that your accounts were not quite fair in this one respect, - so please -

Always sincerely
Frances Noel Hall.

My dear Mr. Pfeiffer -

I am sure you have decided, as I hoped you would, that I, as your client, am quite right in sending the enclosed checks from my brother & myself -

These are for services rendered & as you know, I must pay my debts -

After our telephone conversation the other day, Willie asked
